To Whom It May Concern:

Cat-wood Metalworks is currently certified to AS9100 w/ ISO 0901:2015 and has been granted an extension to certificate #5514, expiration from July 6, 2020 to January 6, 2021. This is due to delay of full Recertification audit, because of the Coronavirus situation.

This extension is based on the following criteria and may be withdrawn if the below activities are not appropriately completed:

- Conduct Recertification audit no later than October 2020.

Thank you for your efforts to maintain the certification in this difficult time. Please contact me with any questions.

Regards,

Kelly E Abbott
Director of Certification
